

Social and Personal

EVERY year the debutantes of the season have an opportunity to prove what perfectly charming girls they really are for the benefit of the public in some big amateur play. Usually this play comes toward the end of the season, but this year the card dance in "Alice in Wonderland," in which all of the debutantes will take part, will come as a very pretty introduction for the girls to be presented to society this year. The cards play, such a charming part in the book that everybody is watching with much interest the part in the play, and the fact that the debutantes will take it is of added interest to Richmond society folk that will fill the Academy of Music to witness the performance. All the debutantes are asked to meet on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Miss Talcott's kindergarten rooms, 14 West Main Street, for the first rehearsal of the card dance.

The children taking part in the fairy dance are asked to meet at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, also in Miss Talcott's kindergarten rooms, 14 West Main Street.

The altar was banked with palms and ferns, and numbers of lighted candles were used. Rev. John O. Moss performed the ceremony.

Miss Camille Virginia Taylor, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and R. Clyde Carter, of Richmond, acted as the groom's best man. Miss Taylor wore a gown of pink satin, made with

Taken to the Hospital.—After Operation Failed to Help, Mrs. Kendrick Found That Cardui Made Her Well.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from Jonesville, S. C., at times I could not bear to stand on my feet.

The doctor said I never would be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer.

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better.

They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and I began to improve, so I continued using it. Now I am well and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable tonic remedy for women—Cardui—when it will help such an apparently hopeless case as this. Its ingredients are mild herbs, with a gentle tonic effect on the womanly constitution.

If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you to get well.

Cardui goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms and drives away the cause.

Have you tried it? If not, do so. It may be just what you need.

NATIONAL ISSUES LEFT UNTOUCHED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)—Raleigh, N. C., October 18.—In his address here to-day at the North Carolina State Fair, Judson A. Harmon, Governor of Ohio, who is a strong Democratic presidential possibility, treated not a single national issue, confining himself to felicitations of North Carolina with greetings from Ohio and the discussion of State problems of agricultural developments, unification of taxation with assessments at real money value and lowest possible rates, and some details of Ohio's tax and road improvement system as he has reformed them. It was a great Wednesday crowd that greeted him, and weather conditions were excellent, with sunshine most of the time and no rain at all.

Governor Harmon, in introducing Governor Kitchin, in introducing Governor Kitchin, reviewed Harmon's career as Ohio state district attorney, his retention by Roosevelt to prosecute the famous rebate cases for the government against the great railroad systems, the estrangement of Harmon from the administration because of his insistence that individuals high in the management of the corporation should be prosecuted as criminals, his retirement from leading counselship in this prosecution on this account, and his great political victories in Ohio, winning two terms as Governor. In spite of the concentrated opposition of the national government forces and Roosevelt combined.

The fair events were a big success to-day. Heavy travel conditions prevented the races.

Tourists Have Much Hard Luck

They Encounter High Water and Bad Roads at Roanoke.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)—Martinsville, Va., October 18.—The Golden tourists played in hard luck today, having been detained in Roanoke until 11 o'clock by high water and bad roads. As a consequence, the cars which should have arrived here at noon began arriving about 4 P. M. The noon control was made eight miles north of here instead of at this place. Cars were still arriving here at 7:30 P. M., about sixty having come in at this hour.

The tourists were welcomed here by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, headed by J. H. Spencer. Most of the tourists only paused here long enough to get gasoline and sandwiches, hurrying on to the night control at Winston-Salem, N. C.
